

MASON BOY WHO LOST ARM IN CONFLICT SAW COMRADES FALL

Thomas B. McCann, of Bridgeport, Returns Home on Furlough With Right Arm Gone—Many Comrades Killed About Him by Shell Which Tore Off His Arm.

Thomas B. McCann, one of the Mason county men who took part in the great battle in the Argonne Forrest and who lost his right arm in the fighting, arrived in Maysville this morning on his way to his home at Bridgeport to visit his mother and sister, who are both ill, on a thirty days' furlough.

Many friends gathered about Mr. McCann this morning at Parker's Livery barn and heard him tell of some of the great conflicts in which he took part. He said that he was down ready to spring at the command of his officer supporting himself with his right hand on the ground when a large German shell burst near him and tore off the arm which was supporting him. This same shell killed two of his comrades who were in front of him, two of the right of him and one on his left. He says he was very fortunate indeed to escape with the loss of only one arm.

Mr. McCann was wounded in the same battle in which Fred Diener, of this city, lost a leg and in this same battle the Morgan boys from this county were killed, Private Cooper, of Springdale was killed and several other Mason county men were injured.

Young McCann's story was very interesting and he showed that he had suffered a severe shock from the battle but says he is now getting along fine.

Flemingsburg, Ky., January 31.—Dr. Bries, health officer, reports 324 new cases of flu in the county, with 14 cases of pneumonia and five deaths for the past week.

NO CHARGE TO BE MADE FOR INSTRUCTION OF BAND

Girls in Auxiliary Band Will Receive Instruction Free Just as the Boys in the Main Band Are Receiving—Expected That Number Will Be Soon Obtained.

Interest in the Girls' auxiliary band in Maysville is growing daily and many young ladies and their parents have begun to inquire in regard to the plans for the organization. Some seem to think that there will be a charge for the instruction of these girls but Prof. Young today made it very plain that there would be no charge but that he would instruct the girls under the same contract he now has with the Chamber of Commerce with no extra expense.

This is a wonderful opportunity for fifteen girls in Maysville and there should be no lagging back but this number should be obtained in a single day. Already several have signified willingness to enter the band and obtain this musical education without the outlay of a penny except for the instrument.

Prof. and Mrs. Young are very anxious to have the girls' auxiliary band closed up in a very few days and begin the work of instructing them and it is urged that all young ladies interested and their parents take the matter up at once with either Prof. and Mrs. Young or the Chamber of Commerce.

RUSH SEASON THOUGHT OVER

Local tobacco men are of the opinion that the rush season on the local tobacco market is now passed. They have been very much rushed all during this week but they think that the greater part of the tobacco ready for market has already been delivered. They are expecting a slow-up until farmers can get their crops stripped out and expect a wind-up of the season during the latter part of February.

DRAFT BOARD MATERIAL IN THIS DISTRICT TO BE SHIPPED

Orders Received By Local Board to Prepare to Care For Records and Material From Local Boards in Many Surrounding Counties—Special Car to be Shipped From Maysville.

Maysville is to be central shipping station for the draft board material and records for Braeken, Robertson, Fleming, Lewis, Nicholas and Bath counties as well as Mason according to information received this morning by the Mason County Draft Board from Major Rhodes, Chief of the Selective Service in the state of Kentucky.

These orders instructed the Mason County Board to make arrangements to care for the records and material of the boards in this county until a car was sent here in which the material will be loaded. The car will then be taken on a special train over the C. & O. to Huntington, W. Va., where other cars will be added to it from place to place until a special train will be made up.

The material in the hands of the draft boards must all be shipped to Washington under the local board's seal and there is much more of it than any one has an idea of for there are all kinds of blanks and records which will be preserved in Washington for future reference.

From the orders received today it appears that the work of the draft boards is now practically completed. The boards are instructed to have their material in shape and shipped to Maysville before February 15th or which date the Mason County Board is expected to have the material ready to ship.

MR. RICHARD WALSH DIES IN TENNESSEE

A recent issue of the Jackson (Tenn.) Sun announces the death on the 28th inst. of Mr. Richard Walsh, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Chas. M. Dooley in that city. Not quite a year ago he was a member of the household of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dooley whilst residents in this city, and accompanied the Dooleys in their departure for the Tennessee city, and the esteem in which Mr. Walsh was held made a warm place in the hearts of all who knew him.

The sweet incense of his kindly virtues, the ripened wisdom of his fruitful experience, coupled with the activity of his matured mind which kept him in touch with every phase of modern life, surrounded him whilst here with a host of esteemed Maysville friends who found pleasure and profit in his commentary on current and remote events, and who will sincerely lament his departure.

PLANS DEBATES FOR STATE HIGH SCHOOL

Will Speak on Feasibility of City Manager Municipal Government Plan.

A series of debates among Kentucky high schools on the feasibility of the city manager plan of government in cities having populations of more than 5,000, with a silver trophy cup as the prize for the school winning the State championship and gold medals for members of the winning team, is being planned by Professor E. C. Mable, Department of English, University of Kentucky. All accredited secondary schools whose courses do not extend beyond the standard four-year high school course are invited to take part in the debates, and the final one of the series will be held at the university at the time of the Interscholastic athletic meet in May, 1919. All preliminary debates will be held by April 15.

The university library is preparing package libraries of books and pamphlets on the subject to be lent for periods of two weeks to schools requesting them. The Department of English will assist in arranging opponents and making plans for preliminary contests, and will match opponents for semi-final debates. The university will meet the expenses of the final debate except railroad fares, and will furnish accommodations for the teams. Boys and girls will be admitted to the contests on equal terms, and teams debating at home will uphold the negative of the proposition.

WORK HORSE SALE WILL ATTRACT MANY HERE

Big Crowd of Farmers and Traders Are Expected In Maysville on Next Monday to Attend the Stock Sales When Work Horses Will Be Featured.

Work horses will be the feature of the sale of stock and horses at the big Mason county stock sales to be held on next Monday—County Court Day—at the Mason county stock yards in lower Limestone street.

The Chamber of Commerce has made a special effort to have many traders and dealers here on that occasion. Special letters have been written many dealers inviting them to Maysville on that occasion and it is expected that the farmers of Mason county will have to offer for sale and will purchase a large number of work animals for the spring work on the farms.

Tobacco prices have been high during this season and it is expected that the farmers will pay good prices for first-class animals.

There is every reason to believe that the February sales will be one of the largest ever held in the new stock yards.

MAKE ARRANGEMENTS FOR BIG POULTRY SHOW HERE IN FEBRUARY

Members of Poultry Association Urge That Many Make Entries to Big Poultry Show to be Held Feb. 10th to 15th Inclusive.

The members of the Mason County Poultry Association are now working hard in completing arrangements for the Big Show which is set for February 10th to the 15th inclusive at the Thomas Building on lower market street.

Every person in the county that is interested in poultry should be looking around their place and examining their flock so as to pick out the ones that seem this best and bring them in at this show. If you wish to learn a great deal about poultry, enter a few birds and you can get more information what way than you could possibly get out of any Journal or book on poultry. Because you have never entered any birds at any show, don't let that keep you out, for you might be surprised and win a prize, not knowing what you have. The only way to win is to keep trying, that is the way the large breeders do in the large poultry shows of the U. S. Most all of the birds that will be entered will be from Mason and adjoining counties, so you can see you will not have to compete with the experienced breeder, but with the folks right at home.

The Show Committee is trying their best to make this show as attractive as possible. There will not only be a great many cash prizes, but five silver cups will be offered for the ones having the best birds. Those cups are beautiful, and are well worth trying for, so enter your birds, for should you win one your reputation for good birds will be known for miles around. Do not forget the date, February 10th to 15th, inclusive, but bring in your birds and let us make this show bigger and better than ever.

SEVERAL COUNTY SCHOOLS TO REOPEN FEBRUARY 10

Health Conditions in the County Have So Improved That It Is Expected That Several County Schools Will Have Many Weeks of Work Yet.

The influenza situation in many parts of the county is now practically cleared and health conditions in some parts are reported again normal and conditions will soon warrant the re-opening of a number of this county schools which were closed early in the last epidemic of the disease.

County Superintendent Turnipseed today said that he had been in conference with County Health Officer Locke, the local physicians and the local trustees in several of the school districts and that he thought February 10th would be time enough to open the schools. While conditions might warrant the re-opening of the schools now in some districts where they are closed, the school authorities want to go slow and carefully this time and be certain that when the schools are re-opened, they will be able to keep them open for the balance of the season.

BAN ON STORES IN COUNTY RAISED BY DR. LOCKE TODAY

County Health Officer Removes Restriction Compelling Country Stores to Close at 6 p. m.—Influenza Continues to Decrease.

Dr. J. S. Locke, County Health Officer, this afternoon announced that the restriction requiring all country stores to close up at six o'clock each evening, had been removed and that stores in all parts of the county may now remain open as late as they like but he urges upon all store keepers not only in the county but in the city as well to prevent looting about the stores.

Dr. Locke today says that health conditions in both city and county remain very encouraging. There were 14 new cases reported from the county yesterday and 4 new cases in the city. There were no deaths during the day and conditions look brighter even than they did yesterday.

The removal of the store closing order again sweeps the county clear of all health restrictions and all business can go ahead as in normal times but Dr. Locke points out that the clearing of all restrictions should not cause the people to relax in their precautions against the disease. The situation is again up to the individual who must be careful to protect himself and his neighbors.

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the County as a whole.

FLETCHERISM

Horace Fletcher, who has just passed on, gained world-wide fame by popularizing an old idea. He was a member of many learned societies; he served as a food expert in Belgium; his doctrine added a word, "fletcherize", to many languages; he had a host of notable converts, among them King Edward of Great Britain.

Dr. Fletcher had a fine constitution and was an athlete. Becoming, like many athletes, a bad insurance risk, he altered his manner in living. Whether he did so wisely is a question. Slenderer men have lived longer; by his plan of eating little and chewing long, some imitators may have been aided, some injured, some possibly killed.

Fletcher's "discovery" was centuries old. Cornaro 400 years ago described it in treatises familiar in translation. Franklin advised people to rise from the table as hungry as they sat down—and himself did likewise. Benjamin Thompson—Count Rumford—more than a hundred years ago, tried to make the Bavarian army save food by chewing it thoroughly. Gladstone was chewing each mouthful of meat thirty-two times, years before Fletcher ever heard of it.

Thompson died at sixty-one; Franklin, who bemoaned his table excesses, at eighty-four. Whether because or in spite of their theories, Gladstone lived to be eighty-eight, and Cornaro ninety-eight. Dr. Fletcher died at seventy, an age by no means ripe for a man who had discovered the secret of longevity.

WHY DEMOBILIZATION IS SLOW

There is real danger in too rapid demobilization of the allied armed forces. Persons in this country, who are impatient because our soldiers are not coming back from overseas in greater numbers, will do well to bear this fact in mind.

The treaty of peace has not yet been signed. How soon it will be, no one knows. It has not even been drawn up. No one can foretell what the outcome of the peace conference will be. We all hope that it will mark the official ending of the Great War, but we do not know that such will be the case.

There are great forces in Europe that are in a state of dangerous unrest. These sinister influences are gaining a foothold in various of the allied countries. How will these factors line up at Versailles and how they will look upon what is said and done there?

It may go against the grain with many of us to do it, but it seems to be imperative to maintain an allied force in continental Europe of sufficient size to handle any situation that may arise. That force must remain there at least until after the signing of the articles of peace; how much longer than that, no one can say at this time.

Civilization is prepared now, at last. It must not make the fatal mistake of again being unprepared.

An old song the boys' quartette sang on the college campus of nights said:

A flea and a fly,
 In a flue,
 Were confined
 So what could they do?
 Said the flea, "Let us fly."
 Said the fly "Let us flee."
 So they flew through a flaw
 In the flu.

Wish the "flu" would take a flying notion and flee. Don't you?

If it is true that Count Bentinck would be glad to get rid of Herr Hohenzollern, why doesn't he vote prohibition on his estate?—Dallas News.

PRAISE OF STEVENS IN RESOLUTIONS

The Board of Directors of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad has adopted this memorial on J. Paul Stevens, who died at his home in Ft. Mitchell last month:

"This board has learned with profound regret of the death of J. Paul Stevens, General Manager of this company's lines of railroad, and it desires that this minute he made as an expression of the high appreciation of this board of his service to this company and of the deep sympathy of this board for his family in their hour of great bereavement and sorrow.

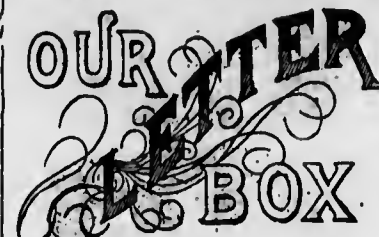

"Entering the transportation department of the railway company as office boy his aptitude for that branch of the service, his energy and buoyancy of spirit, his great capacity for detail and close application won for him constant promotion until within the space of 16 years he was, at the age of 30, appointed General Manager of the property, in which position he served the company from the first day of July, 1916.

"He held the confidence and esteem of those he directed as fully as that of those he served. His geniality gained for him lasting friendships which, notwithstanding the transforming hand of death, will continue far beyond the winning personality of his visible presence."

JAILOR OR REFORM TO BE CHOICE OF UNDERWORLD

New Orleans, La. — Two choices henceforth await the women of the underworld who are convicted in the Recorders' courts of New Orleans on charges of disorderly conduct. The women will be given an opportunity to redeem themselves and take a fresh start in some reputable line of endeavor, after a stay in the home in Kenner recently established by the American Protective league — known as the Amproleague home — or they must serve a term in the parish prison.

This decision was reached after a conference between Mayor Martin Behrman, Judge Rufus Foster of the United States District court, and Forrest C. Pindilton, district superintendent, United States department of justice.

"The league," said Mayor Behrman, "shortly before the signing of the armistice, purchased and equipped a home and farm near Kenner, to which many of the fallen women of the city were committed by the United States court for violation of the law prohibiting the operation of disorderly houses within five miles of a military or naval station. This home and farm represents an outlay of $15,000 and was intended as a reformatory, where women could learn useful occupations following which they could go out into the world and earn honest livings.

"But with the cessation of hostilities and the rapid demobilization of the army the federal courts will soon be powerless to act. The activities of the American Protective league will cease soon and the home and farm will be abandoned."

CALLED HER FAMILY TO HER BEDSIDE

Six Years Ago, Thinking She Might Die, Says Texas Lady, But Now She Is a Well, Strong Woman and Praises Cardui For Her Recovery.

Royse City, Tex.—Mrs. Mary Kilman, of this place, says: "After the birth of my little girl...my side commenced to hurt me. I had to go back to bed. We called the doctor. He treated me...but I got no better. I got worse and worse until the misery was unbearable...I was in bed for three months and suffered such agony that I was just drawn up in a knot... I told my husband if he would get me a bottle of Cardui I would try it... I commenced taking it, however, that evening I called my family about me... for I knew I could not last many days unless I had a change for the better. That was six years ago and I am still here and am a well, strong woman, and I owe my life to Cardui. I had only taken half the bottle when I began to feel better. The misery in my side got less... I continued right on taking the Cardui until I had taken three bottles and I did not need any more for I was well and never felt better in my life... I have never had any trouble from that day to this."

Do you suffer from headache, backache, pains in sides, or other discomforts, each month? Or do you feel weak, nervous and fagged-out? If so, me... for I knew I could not last many days unless I had a change for

FIELDS FAVORS THE ROAD AND RIVER MEASURES ENDORSED

Communication From Congressman Fields to Chamber of Commerce Tell of His Endorsement of Important Measures.

In order that the members of the Chamber of Commerce and citizens of Mason county may know the attitude of their representative, Hon. W. J. Fields, toward several resolutions recently communicated to him with the endorsement of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce, regarding river and highway improvements, his several replies under date of January 25th, follows:

"I acknowledge the receipt of your favor of the 11th inst., accompanied by resolution of your institution advocating the creation of a Highway Commission and the establishment of a National Highway System, and will say in reply that the proposition referred to has been my hobby since my earliest service in Congress, as is evidenced by several speeches that I have made, in my humble way, in Congress on the subject. You may, therefore rest assured that this movement will at all times receive my unqualified indorsement and full support."

"I acknowledge receipt of your favor of the 14th inst., accompanied by resolution of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association, and will say in reply that while I am always pleased to receive expressions from your institution, no expression that I may receive will add to my interest in the subject referred to. Such improvement has been one of my pet hobbies."

Representative Fields, also communicates a reply relative to the telegram and letter sent him in an endeavor to have the "Luxury Tax" amended which follows:

"I acknowledge receipt of both your telegram and letter of the 20th inst., containing your disapproval of the luxury tax on wearing apparel in the Revenue Bill, and will say in reply that the bill now in conference and is, therefore, out of the reach of the House, so far as amendments are concerned. Under parliamentary procedure the only course that either the House or the Senate can now take is to ratify or reject as a whole the report of the conferees."

CITY MISSION NEEDS

It has been customary to hold an annual meeting of the City Mission Board in November when reports of the year's work were made, officers elected and plans defined for ensuing year. Also the anniversary of the establishment of the Mission has been celebrated with a birthday party which has performed the double purpose of bringing the friends of the Mission together and increasing funds and interest.

Owing to deficiency in Board membership, election of officers has been deferred, but, with the resumption of Mission activities has come the necessity of better organization. The constitution provides that the Mission shall be managed by a Board of Directors composed of 15 members representing the churches and social betterment agencies of the city, wishing to cooperate with the Mission.

If the Mission is to serve the purpose for which it came into existence, the support and cooperation of the religious organizations is paramount. And if all the Philanthropic Agencies are to do the utmost good with minimum expenditure of time, labor and money there must be mutual understanding, sympathy and cooperation. Such affiliation through representative membership would help to simplify Mission problems and systematize its work.

With the heavy demands upon people and purses while the war was being won the Board made no special call for funds. The income derived from regular contributions from churches, firms, individuals and City Council supplemented by occasional volunteer donations has been made to cover current expenses. It is not sufficient, however, to employ a trained worker, qualified as Office Secretary, City Missionary and Social Service Superintendent and some plan must be derived whereby the present income can be doubled. Excepting Christmas donations, there has been comparatively little clothing sent in the past few months. Some garments have been sold at a nominal sum and the money thus obtained spent for children's clothing. Some mothers have been able to make children's clothes from partly worn garments. Any new materials that may be supplied and some articles on hand, will be turned into clothes for school children by the ladies of the Mission and Settlement Club as soon as conditions make such work practicable.

Last but not least is the need of a corps of dependable workers. Whether there is a trained worker in charge or not there is always the necessity of a number of helpers.

About 30 children have been enrolled in the Industrial School. The girls have begun sewing under direction of Mrs. Ficklin and Mrs. Rosenham.

Miss Mary Wood has directed the work of the boys and smaller children ever since the Industrial School was organized, but has been compelled to give it up this winter. Assistants for two hours on Saturday afternoon are badly needed.

More Sunday School Teachers and several to assist with the music are needed.

There have been some applications for night school instructions recently, for which no provision has been made. Neither can the clubs for the Working Boys and Girls be carried on at present. These and other activities must bide their time, but in the meantime from war to peace condition, this institution so fully recognized as a Community Necessity, will receive its full share of attention and become a permanently established factor in the welfare of the city and the uplift of the children of the poor.

GASSED TWO DAYS AFTER SIGNING OF ARMISTICE

New York—It was a hard war for the Three Hundred and Fifteenth Infantry and Jack Devereaux, a Broadway actor and a lieutenant in company L. He went through at least a dozen battles without a scratch and the day the armistice was signed he slapped himself on the back, congratulating himself as lucky.

Devereaux came home on the transport Ahangarez with 106 other passengers, most of them soldier heroes, but instead of slapping himself on the back he was kicking himself all over. Two days after the war ended he was gassed.

The soldiers in this regiment were still cheering the defeat of the Germans, and Devereaux was walking through the ruins of Bras, near Verdun, when he accidentally tripped over a gas trap left by the enemy. The soldier-actor was overcome and for several weeks after was under treatment.

VALUABLE ADVICE

Maysville Citizens Should Profit By The Following Statement.

Doan's Kidney Pills were used by this Maysville resident.

Their merit was shown—the story told.

Now comes further evidence. The testimony is confirmed.

The remedy was tested—the results tested.

Could Maysville residents demand stronger proof? It's Maysville testimony. It can be investigated.

A Sorries, lock and gunsmith, W. Second and Wall Sts., gave the following statement in January, 1912:

"The action of my kidneys was irregular and the kidney secretions contained sediment. I had backaches and when I stooped over, I had trouble in straightening up. Colds settled in my back and kidneys, too. Doan's Kidney Pills stopped the trouble and my back and kidneys became as strong and well as ever."

A LASTING EFFECT

On November 14, 1916, Mr. Sorries said: "I am the same strong believer in Doan's Kidney Pills today, as when I gave my former endorsement."

I haven't had any trouble with my kidneys in that time and I believe the cure they gave me will be permanent."

Mr. Sorries is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches — If your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mr. Sorries had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60 cents at all stores. NAT GOODWIN, MANY TIMES MARRIED, DIES

Famous Actor, Who Won a Reputation On His Many Romantic Marriages, Died This Morning in New York.

New York, January 31.—Nat C. Goodwin, actor, died at his apartments in the Hotel Claridge here early today from a complication of diseases. He had been ill only a few days.

Death resulted, physicians said, from a general breakdown, which came after an operation in which his right eye was removed about a year ago.

Goodwin's home was in Ocean Park, California, where he owned considerable property, but he spent a great part of his time in New York.

Goodwin's reputation as an actor was second to his fame as a matrimonial man. His five marriages often were commented by him and on one occasion he wrote:

"My first wife was an angel, my second a silly woman, my third a Roman senator, my fourth a pretty little thing, my fifth—all woman."

Goodwin appeared in the old Washington Opera House in this city many years ago in his famous Western play, "Arizona."

BRINGS SUIT ON LAND NOTES

In the Mason Circuit Court this afternoon Lewis J. Forman filed suit against Gertrude Cooper, William K. Cooper and Alta Marie Cooper for collection of three notes for $300 each. The petition sets forth that Forman sold to Mrs. Gertrude Cooper and her husband, now dead, a farm in the Murphysville neighborhood for which these land notes were given. The petition says they have not been paid and the widow and children are sued for their payment.

"PROCRUSTINATION" IS REVIVAL SUBJECT TONIGHT

"Sins of Procrastination" Will Be the Subject at Third Street Revival This Evening.

"The Sin of Procrastination" will be the sermon subject at the revival services at the Third Street M. E. Church this evening. This is a very opportune subject at this point in the meetings. This special season will close with Sunday's services. That much has been done no one will doubt; that there is time for much more to be done is a challenge to the church. Rev. Peters' sermons have all been to the point.

A better series of evangelistic sermons has not been heard in Maysville in years. The music has been increasingly good. That for the remaining services will be still better because of the continued practice. Come this evening at 7:30 and then come again Saturday evening and Sunday. You will be the gainer for having come.

MEMBERSHIP OF CHAMBER OF COMMERCE INCREASED

Membership Committee of Organization in Short Time Obtains Several New Memberships From Local Business Men.

The membership committee of the Maysville Chamber of Commerce was out for a short time this morning calling on the local business men in an effort to increase the membership of the organization and although they were out but about thirty minutes, they procured about eleven new members.

The Chamber of Commerce is the one commercial organization in the city and is accomplishing much in many different ways not alone for the city but for the county as well and it deserves the hearty co-operation of all of our business men and our progressive farmers.

This membership campaign will be continued for several days and it is expected that many new names will be added to the membership roll.

PROF. ADAMS BUSY ON SCHOOL BOOK PROBLEM

GREAT GAIN SHOWN IN ASSESSMENTS OVER KENTUCKY

Increase of 71.6 Per Cent in Total Valuation Shown in First Annual Report of Commission—New Tax Laws Success Assured.

Frankfort, Ky., January 30.—The total assessed valuation of property in Kentucky for the year 1918, including money in bank, was $1,583,121,230, an increase of $660,664,750, or 71.6 per cent according to the first annual report of the State Tax Commission sent to Governor A. O. Stanley. "Full ninety per cent of the counties of Kentucky," the report states "are showing an understanding of the new tax laws, which augurs well for the prosperity of Kentucky. That the new tax laws are a success can not be disputed."

The report in part follows: "For the year 1917 we found that the total assessed valuation of property as reported by the county assessors, supervised by the State Board of Equalization, was $922,456,481.00. This included money in bank amounting to $11,277,198.00. Deducting money in bank for the year 1917, the total was $911,179,283.00. This sum was made up as follows:

Lands $391,694,806.00
Town lots $22,140,632.00
Tangible personal property 128,692.96
Intangible personal property 128,692,966.00

Intangible personal property 68,650,880.00
For the year 1918, the total assessment, including money in bank, as finally reported by the county assessors and supervised by the County Board of Supervisors, was $1,583,121,230.00. Exclusive of bank deposits, the total assessment for 1918 was $1,403,987,050.00. This sum was made up as follows:

Lands $545,453,422.00
Town lots $41,592,377.00
Tangible personal property 232,808.25
Intangible personal property 232,808,251.00

Intangible personal property 246,348,379.00
Bank shares 37,775,621.00
It will thus be seen that the total assessment, including bank deposits, increased from $922,456,481.00 to $1,583,121,230.00, which is an increase of $660,664,750.00, or 71.6 per cent. Money in bank increased from $11,277,198.00 to $179,143,180.00, which is an increase of 167,865,982.00, or 1,498.5 per cent.

Land increased from $391,694,806.00 to $545,453,422.00, which is an increase of $153,758,616.00, or 39.2 per cent. Town lots increased from $22,140,632.00 to $41,592,377.00, which is an increase of $19,451,745.00, or 6.03 per cent.

Tangible personal property increased from $128,692,966.00 to $232,808,251.00, which is an increase of $104,115,285.00, or 80.8 per cent. Intangible personal property increased from $68,650,880.00 to $246,348,379.00, which is an increase of $177,697,499.00, or 258.8 per cent.

OUR COLORED CITIZENS

Revival Services
Rev. Timberlake prefaced his sermon, last evening, by paying a compliment to Maysville and its people. He spoke of their hospitality, dignity, and their high regard for religion. He never forgets to point out those things that have a tendency to pull down the race. He is charmed with the good Gospel singing we have had during this meeting.

He preached a beautiful sermon, subject, "The Cleansing Stream" or "Naaman The Leper". He brought out this point in the sermon how a little child can lead and what good they can accomplish if properly trained. He also dwelt on obedience. The drawings on these charts are beautiful and we are able to follow this earnest speaker step by step.

The theme for this evening is "God's Marriage Vow". This sermon, is an illustrated one. Rev. Timberlake would like to have every backslider in the city hear this sermon.

This afternoon the "Bethel Baptist Sewing Circle," will be hostess to all women's clubs, lodges and all the other women of this city at 2:30 at the church where Rev. NEW YORK MUSIC TEACHER

Sings "Vinol Cures Chronic Coughs"

New York City, 121 Nichols Avenue.—"I teach piano and singing and when suffering from chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis, I use Vinol as I find it cures when other remedies fail."—Henry Albers.

The reason Vinol is so successful in such conditions, is because it is a constitutional remedy containing beef and cod liver peptonates and glycerophosphates. It strengthens and revitalizes the entire system and assists nature to expel the disease.

We know of many such cases. P. S.—For any skin trouble try our Saxol Salve. Money back if it fails.
